Numb. 10662.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 23, to Saturday September 27, 1766.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th Day of September, 1766,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable George-William Earl of Briſtol was, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to declare the Right Honourable George-William Earl of Briſtol, Lieutenant General and General Governor of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th Day of September, 1766,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHereas His Majeſty has been informed by Addreſſes from the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, the Cities of Briſtol and Norwich, and other conſiderable Corporations, and numerous Bodies of Men, that the Price of Wheat has gradually increaſed ever ſince the Ports were opened by the Expiration of the Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, and that at Bear Key it is above the Bounty-Price, and in moſt other Places in the Kingdom greatly exceeding the ſame, and it is upon the ſtrongeſt Ground to be preſumed to be ſtill riſing; that the Stock in Hand is very inconſiderable, and that the Crop of the preſent Year has failed in ſuch a Proportion, that if the Exportation be not immediately ſtopped, there is great Cauſe to foreſee that very ſhortly there will not remain in the Kingdom a Quantity ſufficient for the neceſſary Supply of His Majeſty's Subjects.---And whereas this Apprehenſion is much increaſed from the undoubted Informations His Majeſty has received, that from the Failure of, and Deficiencies in the Crops in ſeveral Foreign Parts, Commiſſions have been received from thence to purchaſe Wheat, to ſupply ſuch Foreign Markets, at an unlimited Price; and which Commiſſions are, at this Time, larger and more extenſive than have been known at any Time; ſo that unleſs His Majeſty ſhould, upon this Emergency, exert His Royal Authority to prevent the further Exportation of Wheat and Wheat Flour, His Majeſty's Subjects would be in Danger of Want, whilſt Foreigners are ſupplied from this Country.——And whereas the Parliament ſtanding prorogued to the Eleventh Day of November next, His Majeſty has not an Opportunity of taking the Advice of His Parliament ſpeedily enough upon the preſent Emergency to ſtop the Progreſs of a Miſchief daily increaſing, and which, if not immediately provided againſt, might be productive of Calamities paſt all Poſſibility of Remedy---It is therefore, upon the Grounds of the above urgent Neceſſity now impending, and for the Safety, Benefit, and Suſtenance of His Majeſty's Subjects, that His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, That an Embargo be forthwith laid upon all Ships and Veſſels laden or to be laden, in the Ports of Great Britain, with Wheat or Wheat Flour, to be Exported to Foreign Parts; and that the ſaid Embargo do continue and remain, from the Date hereof, until the Fourteenth Day of November next——And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th Day of September, 1766,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHereas His Majeſty hath received Information, that the Price of Wheat has gradually increaſed ever ſince the Ports were opened by the Expiration of the Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, and that in the Port of London, the Price of Wheat has been for two ſucceſſive Market Days, above Forty-eight Shillings the Quarter Winchester Meaſure;

Meaſure; and it is upon the ſtrongeſt Grounds to be preſumed to be ſtill riſing--His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy-Council, (purſuant to the Powers veſted in His Majeſty for that Purpoſe, by an Act paſſed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second) hereby Prohibit the Making, Extracting, or Diſtilling, of any Kind of Low Wines, or Spirits, from any Wheat, Wheat Meal, Wheat Flour, or Wheat Braſs, or any Mixture therewith, from the Date hereof until the Fourteenth Day of November next: Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and yield due Obedience to His Majeſty's Commands hereby ſignified.

W. Blair.

St. James's, September 27.

The following Addreſs of the Council and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Nevis, has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Aſſembly of your Iſland of Nevis, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Majeſty with Hearts truly ſenſible of the many Virtues which adorn your Royal Mind, and of your Paternal Regard for all your Subjects, the happy Effects of which extend themſelves to the remoteſt Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions.

Animated with theſe Sentiments, we reflect with the higheſt Gratitude and Thankfulneſs upon your Majeſty's great Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion in repealing a late Act of Parliament for granting certain Stamp Duties in America, which demand from us the warmeſt Returns of dutiful Submiſſion and grateful Acknowledgments, and which muſt neceſſarily have an equal Tendency to ſtrengthen and perpetuate that natural Dependance of the Colonies upon our Mother-Country, and to promote that Intercourſe and Connexion between them ſo eſſential to their mutual Intereſts.

Bleſſed in the Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Liberties under your Majeſty's benign and auſpicious Government, we offer up our moſt ardent Prayers to God, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over an united and happy People; and that your Throne may be eſtabliſhed in your Illuſtrious Family to the lateſt Ages.

Conſtantinople, Auguſt 16. M. Brougnard, the new Imperial Internuncio, had his Audience of the Grand Signior on Tueſday laſt; and the next Day M. Gehler, the Daniſh Envoy, had his Audience of Leave of the Grand Vizir.

The Captain Baſha having finiſhed his Buſineſs at Smyrna the 2d Inſtant, was preparing to depart for Scio. Smyrna and the Parts adjacent continued free from any Rumours of the Plague.

On Tueſday the 5th Inſtant, at half an Hour paſt Twelve o'Clock, we had a moſt violent Shock of an Earthquake, which laſted near a Minute, and has done great Damage at Conſtantinople, having thrown down or damaged greatly almoſt all the Stone Edifices that were ſhook by the firſt, and was of a greater Extent than that of the 22d of May, as it has ruined almoſt all the Villages on the Road to Adrianople, and thrown down Four Moſques and many Houſes there. Rodoſto on the White Sea, Gallipoli, many Villages on the Canal of the Dardanells, and the Iſland of Tenedos, have ſuffered greatly. We had two ſlight Shocks the ſame Evening; and on Thurſday Night a Fire broke out at Fundukli, which has deſtroyed Eight or Nine Houſes.

The Grand Signior has diſplaced the Boſtangi Bachi, and the Kiſlar Aga.

Florence, September 13. The Great Duke has fixed the 21ſt Inſtant for his Departure for Piſa and Leghorne; his Abſence will only be for Eight Days.

The Pope has appointed the 22d of this Month for the Promotion of Cardinals.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Sept. 27, 1766.

The Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Carolina Matilda with His Majeſty the King of Denmark, is appointed to be ſolemnized, by Proxy, at St. James's, on Wedneſday the 1ſt Day of October next, at Half an Hour paſt Seven o'Clock in the Evening; at which Time none but Peers and Peereſſes, Peers eldeſt Sons, and Peers Daughters, Privy Counſellors and their Wives, and Foreign Miniſters, are to be admitted.

St James's, September 17, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That on Saturday laſt, being the 13th Day of this inſtant September, about Six o Clock in the Morning, as Ann Drew, of Tiverton in the County of Devon, Spinſter, was about to open the Gate, or Fore-Door, belonging to the Dwelling Houſe of Thomas How, one of the Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough Town of Tiverton, Fuller, her Maſter, and with whom ſhe lives as a menial Servant, ſhe found a Letter, directed, the Perſon had thrown over the ſaid Door into the Entry adjoining, directed to the Old Tom How; which Letter ſhe immediately carried to her ſaid Maſter, ſuppoſing it was directed to him; and that the ſaid Letter, and its Direction, were in the following Words, viz.

" To the Old Tom How."—

" Mr Roge —— You muſt know yourſelf that You
" have been guilty of every Thing that is bad,
" excepting Murder, therefore We are determined
" that You taſte ſomething of Hell here upon Earth,
" as ſhore as Thee haſt a Soul in thy Body thou
" ſhalt be roſted in thy Bed before this Winter is
" over and as for thy Son We will fold Him
" up One Night or other ——— We have ſworn
" and will perform:"

His

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in Writing the ſaid anonymous threatening incendiary Letter, and in ſuperſcribing or directing the ſame, as aforeſaid, and in throwing, or cauſing it to be thrown, over the Door, into the Entry adjoining to the Dwelling Houſe of the ſaid Thomas How, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſame) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the ſaid Thomas How does hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon (except as before excepted) making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid by him upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Thomas How.

And, as a ſtill further Encouragement, the Corporation of Tiverton do, in like Manner, offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds (except as before excepted) to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery; to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the ſaid Offenders.

Henry Oſmond, Mayor.
